

Sunshine Rare Coins Email Newsletter #4 Post PCGS Members Only & Fall Baltimore Edition!

Welcome to my fourth email newsletter. Since my last newsletter in August, I have been busy buying and selling coins at the recent PCGS Members Only show in Philadelphia and the Fall Whitman Baltimore show.

PCGS Members Only - Philadelphia Report

The PCGS Members Only show was held in a great location in the heart of downtown Philadelphia. It was my first time attending a PCGS Members Only show and I had a great time. PCGS does a great job putting on the show and it was a nice contrast from a large major show with hundreds of dealers.

There was a intimate feel with about 30 tables - most of them being bigger dealers. I picked up some very nice NEWPS, and the show was better than I expected, with good activity on the floor. Legend had a great auction, with a variety of quality coins, fresh collections and a fabulous set of $10 Indians. I really like their smaller boutique auctions, with handpicked, quality coins.

I hope PCGS has more Members Only shows on the East Coast as I would definitely return. I am looking forward to the 2018 ANA show in Philadelphia.

Fall Baltimore Show Report

I recently returned from the Fall Baltimore show, the final major coin show of the year. The action was nonstop from start to finish. Whitman always puts on a great show, with large collector attendance and a active, large bourse floor. It's one of my favorite shows. I sold a good amount of coins, and picked up close to a double row box full of NEWPS and consignments.

Stacks had a great auction with some very neat and fresh material including great coins from the Cardinal Collection Foundation and the Catherine Bullowa-Moore collection.

On a sadder note, legendary collector Eric Newman passed away November 15th at the age of 106. He had one of the greatest coin collections ever assembled, which was sold in a series of auctions by Heritage Auctions. Attending lot viewing and the live auctions in NYC was a great experience that I will remember for years to come. The New York Times wrote a great obituary which you can read below. I have also linked to images of some of my favorite Newman coins that were sold in years past.

My next major show I am attending is the January FUN Show in Tampa, Florida. It's a great start to the new year, held in a great location with sunny weather. There's always fresh material in the Heritage auction and on the bourse floor.

I also set up at the Parsippany, NJ Show almost every month. It's the first Sunday of the month and its always a fun one day local show with good public attendance.

Please keep checking the website in the next few weeks because I add new coins frequently. If you are looking to sell quality Bust or Seated coins or have anything that you might want to consign to me - please contact me. Also, please let me know if you have any coins on your want list that I can help you find. I have a growing number of collectors who give me want lists so I can help you find that special coin.

I have just added a large group of choice NEWPS to the website from the Philadelphia PCGS and Fall Baltimore shows, including some premium quality Bust and Seated coins across all price ranges.

Please visit my website below to see my full inventory, and email me at davidbsunshine@yahoo.com if you see anything of interest.
